

Excused Absences for Voting

NASA has a longstanding policy of granting employees limited time off from work (i.e., excused absence) to vote in Federal, state, county, or municipal elections or in referendums on any civic matter in their community. Typically, polling places throughout the United States are open for extended periods of time. Therefore, excused absence is rarely needed. The following general guidelines are considered when granting excused absence for voting in the Presidential election on November 4, 2008, or in any other upcoming election. Please consult with your Center's Human Resources Office for more information and Center-specific guidance.

Generally, where the polls are not open at least 3 hours either before or after an employee's regular work hours, an agency may grant a limited amount of excused absence that will permit the employee to report for work 3 hours after the polls open or leave from work 3 hours before the polls close, whichever requires the lesser amount of time off. An employee's "regular work hours" should be determined by reference to the time of day the employee normally arrives at and departs from work.

For example, if an employee is scheduled to work from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and the employee's polling place is open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., the employee should not be granted excused absence for voting since the employee would still have at least 3 hours after the end of his or her work schedule to vote. However, if an employee is scheduled to work from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and the employee's polling place is open from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., the employee may be granted ½ hour of excused absence from 4:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., if requested.

Extended Commuting Distance

If an employee's voting place is beyond normal commuting distance and vote by absentee ballot is not permitted, the agency may grant excused absence (not to exceed 1 day) to allow the employee to make the trip to the voting place to cast a ballot. If more than 1 day is needed, the employee may request annual leave or leave without pay for the additional period of absence.
